Top Problems

Child Prob 1: —

I lash out at people very quickly.

Child Prob 2: —

I can't leave the house.

Child Prob 3: —

It's hard for me to communicate with other people.

Caregiver Prob 1: —

He avoids going to new places.

Caregiver Prob 2: —

He has trouble being away from me.

Caregiver Prob 3: —

He is shy around other kids.

Latest Result (17 Days Ago)

Hover for full problem text
Child Prob 1: 0

Child Prob 2: 0

Child Prob 3: 1

Caregiver Prob 1: 0

Caregiver Prob 2: 0

Caregiver Prob 3: 1

Top Problems

Latest Result (16 Days Ago)

Child Internalizing: 2

Child Externalizing: 0

Caregiver Internalizing: 2

Caregiver Externalizing: 0

Internalizing vs. Externalizing

FIGURE 29.1. Measurement feedback system client dashboard used to inform clinician decision making for a youth who presented with anxiety and conduct problems at pretreatment. The dashboard displays weekly caregiver- and youth-report ratings of informant-identified "top problems" and of a standardized measure of internalizing and externalizing problems throughout the 10-week treatment. Copyright © Jacqueline Hersh and John R. Weisz. Reprinted by permission.
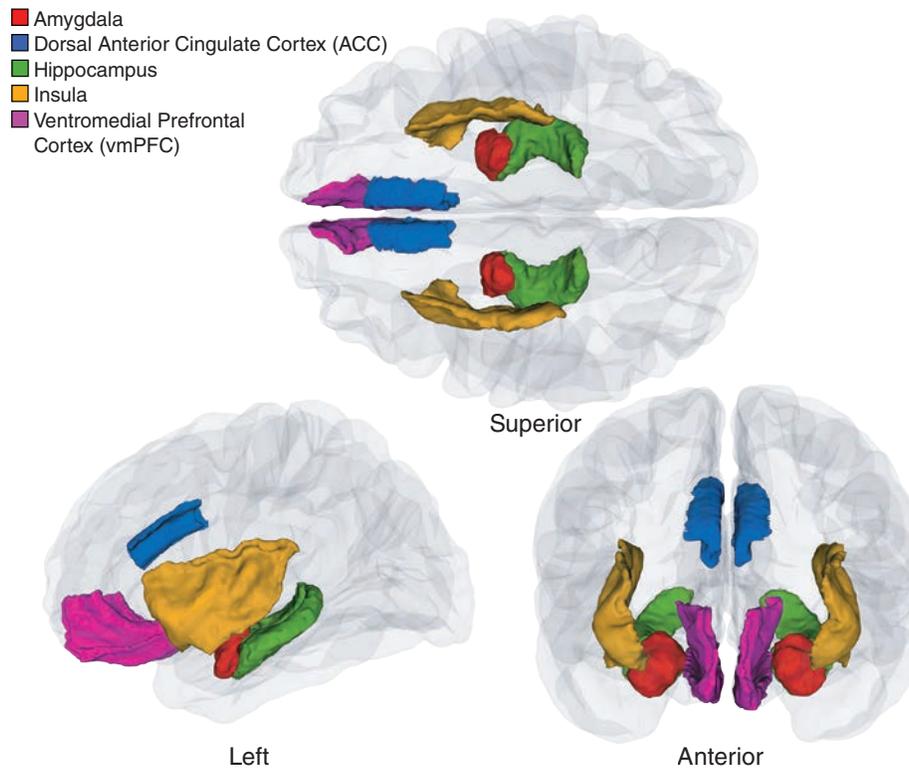

FIGURE 30.1. Key brain regions involved in fear learning and salience processing (brain data from Freesurfer: http://surfer.nmr.mgh.harvard.edu).

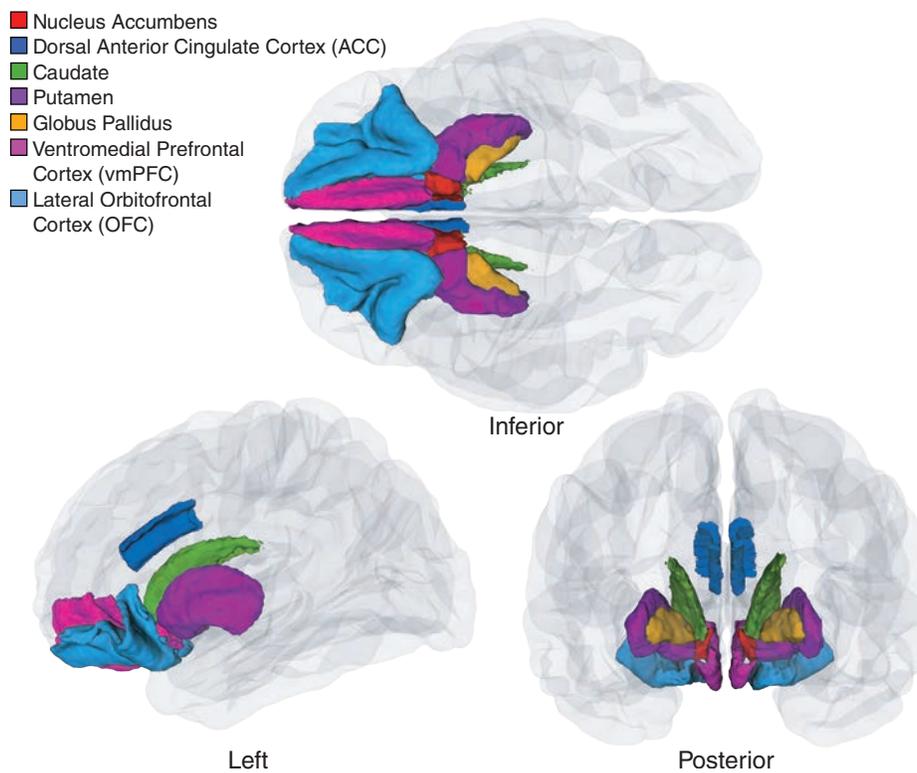

FIGURE 30.2. Key brain regions involved in reward processing (brain data from Freesurfer: http://surfer.nmr.mgh.harvard.edu).